THIS PARADISE OF PACIFIC ECLIPSES ALL PAST ISSUES

To say that this year's Christmas number of the Paradise of the Pacific, issued today, outdoes the former achievements of Honolulu's pioneer promotion periodical in artistic execution is a strong statement, yet nevertheless it is true. No finer title page has ever appeared on any local print, and it is doubtful if it has been surpassed outside of Hawaii. The main design of it is a land and water scene, with a native boy net-fishing in the foreground, done in delicate tints. This is framed in a border of night blooming cereus in native colors upon black relieved near the edge with light yellow ruling. There are several other exquisite pieces of color illustration in the magazine—"Hana-lei" (illustrating an article by Judge Dole), "Sunrise" and "Sunset" being chief among them. Besides these there is a supplement larger than two pages entitled a picture in black entitled, "Old Hawaiian Life," with a pictorial border in green tint, for which nobody would begrudge the price of the number. Illustrations in black comprise a great variety of Hawaiian views, including commercial and sub-public buildings, beautiful dwellings, bits of scenery, etc., all of them evincing the best of art presswork.

Executed in flawless typography, the letterpress of the number is in keeping, in a literary point of view, with the artistic features of the number already mentioned. Let this condensed table of contents speak for itself: Editorial—Peace on Earth, The Roads of Hawaii, The Wireless Wonder, Assisted Drama Here, Our Carnival Season, More Chance of Statehood, Library of Hawaii, Merchants' Association and Chamber of Commerce, Maui, writings of hotels and banks, etc. Contributions—Kilauea (poem), L. V. F. Randolph; Hanalei, U. S. Judge Sanford B. Dole; Maltin Christmas Tree (poem), Will Sabin; Christmas for a Thousand Children, W. Spencer Bowen; 1912 Record in Fruit Growing, J. E. Higgins; Introduction of Beneficial Insects into Hawaii, O. H. Swenzy; The new Wireless System, H. P. Veeder; The Friendly Rocks (poem), E. S. Goodhue; Possibilities for Coffee Growers in Hawaii, J. M. McChesney; A Glimpse of Freedom (story), Rhoda Gree nTayler; Life of Kamehameha, Rev. W. D. Westervelt; Promotion Work on Hawaii, H. W. Kinney; A City of Beautiful Homes, Ward Talbot; Christmas in the Crater (story), Will Sabin; The Spirit of Christmas (poem), Mary Dillingham Frear; Promotion Work Making Greater Hawaii, H. P. Wood; Pearl Harbor, Albert Pierce Taylor; Hawaii and the Panama Canal, Elmer E. Paxton; Atonement (poem), A. E. Nichols. All for twenty-five cents.

AGED HAWAIIAN STRUCK BY CAR

Keoni Hikalani, an inmate of Lunalilo Home, giving his age as eighty-two years, is at Queen's hospital suffering from a broken left arm, some bodily bruises and slight internal injuries sustained from being struck by Rapid Transit car No. 52.

According to the report that reached the police, the old man was walking along the stretch of track that crosses the swamps from King street to Walkiki road when the car came along and before it was stopped had hit the Hawaiian, sending him into the duck ponds.

The accident occurred at 6:25 Saturday evening. The man was picked up and placed on the street car. A telephone message summoned the police ambulance, which met the Rapid Transit car as it neared town. The Hawaiian was transferred to the patrol and hastily removed to the hospital for treatment.

The Popular Theater, the latest moving picture house in the city, opened its doors Saturday night to the public, and the flocking of the people to this latest house of amusement clearly showed that there were still enough people to go around and fill all of the theaters.

The Popular has been all fitted up with opera chairs of the most comfortable pattern, and other changes in the house has added to the ventilation facilities, and makes the place very pleasant in which to pass an evening.

The pictures Saturday evening were good, and compared more than favorably with similar amusement houses in the city. The pictures were steady on the screen, and that is the "catching" feature of movies.

It was stated that the "Popular" (formerly the Orpheum) was too far from the moving picture center of the city, but the patronage last Saturday night does not bear this out. The prices of admission are only fifteen and twenty cents, and the changes of pictures will be as often or oftener than any other "movie" house in the city. Take in the Popular.

I Am Willing To Prove I Can Cure You

To That End I Am Giving Away $10,000 Worth of Medicine

In order to show beyond all doubt that I am in possession of a medicine that will cure kidney trouble, bladder trouble or rheumatism, I will this year give away ten thousand dollars' worth of this medicine, and anyone suffering from these diseases can get a box of it absolutely free. All that is necessary is to send me your address.

I don't mean that you are to use a part of it or all of it and say "I am cured." I mean that I will send you a box of this medicine absolutely free of charge, a gift from me to the Urine Acid sufferers of the world, so I can show them where and how they may be cured. I will not expect payment for this free medicine, nor would I accept it now or later if you sent it. It is free in the real meaning of the word.

For twenty-five years—a quarter of a century—I have been trying to convince the public that I have something genuine, something better than others have for the cure of stubborn, chronic rheumatism, for torturing kidney backache, for annoying calls to urinate. But it is hard to convince people—they try a few things unsuccessfully and give up all hope and refuse to listen to anyone thereafter. Happily, I am in a position now to demonstrate to sufferers at my own expense that I have a medicine that cures these diseases. I don't ask them to spend any money to find out; I don't ask them to believe me, nor even to take the word of reliable people, but all I ask is that they allow me to send them the medicine at my own cost. That is surely fair.

To this end I have set aside ten thousand dollars, which will be used to compound my medicine. Much of it is ready now to be sent out, all of it fresh and standard. There will be enough for all sufferers, though there be thousands of them. And anyone who needs it can get some of it free. But in order that I shall know that you have a disease for which this medicine is intended, I ask you to send me some of your leading symptoms. If you have any of the symptoms in the list printed here you need my medicine and if you will write me I will gladly send you a box of it free with full directions for your use. Look the symptoms over, see which symptoms you have, then write me about as follows: "Dear Dr. T. Frank Lynott, I have the following symptoms: 1. Pain in the back, 2. Burning or obstruction of urine, 3. Pain or swelling of the bladder, 4. Frequent urination, 5. Gas or pain in the stomach, 6. General debility, weakness, dizziness, 7. Pain or soreness under right rib, 8. Swelling in any part of the body, 9. Constipation or liver trouble, 10. Pallidation or malarial spots on the heart, 11. Pain in the hip joint, 12. Pain in the knee joint, 13. Pain or soreness in the kidneys, 14. Pain or swelling of the joints, 15. Pain or swelling of the muscles, 16. Pain and soreness in nerves, 17. Ate or chronic rheumatism.

The ten thousand dollars I am spending for the compounding of my medicine is only a part of the money I am devoting to this cause, for the package of medicine I send you will be fully prepaid at my expense. From any standpoint you view it, YOU incur no expense or obligation. Just tell others who you know are suffering who sent you the medicine that cured you.

I am promising to give away ten thousand dollars' worth of medicine and I will do that; I am promising to send any sufferer who writes me a box of this medicine and full directions free of charge, and I will do that.

who is giving away $10,000 worth of medicine.

I can say further that this medicine has been vouched for according to law as complying in every detail with all requirements. It will stop rheumatism, it will stop pain and backache, it will stop too frequent desire to urinate; it will heal, soothe and strengthen. You will be better in every way for having taken it. There is not an ingredient that can injure; not one but will benefit. All that I ask is that you use it yourself so that you may be personally convinced.

Owing to the large number of requests, I have had ten thousand more copies of my medical book printed. This book is new and up to date and contains complete descriptions, symptoms, causes, effects and cures of kidney, bladder and rheumatic diseases. All who write for the free medicine will be sent a copy of this grand illustrated medical book—the largest ever written on these diseases for free and general distribution.

If you need medicine such as I have if you are anxious to be cured and don't want to spend any money LOOKING for cures, write me. Read the symptoms over and let me hear from you today.
